To His Excellency
The French Ambassador
Washington, D. C.

Your Excellency:

We understand that many of the people who took part in the June ceremonies commemorating the death of Lafayette were presented with a bronze medal. Would it be possible for this museum to obtain one of these medals for our cabinet. We have a fine collection of Lafayette medals and had them on view for a number of months this year. I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

Gentlemen:

We beg to acknowledge the receipt of the Lafayette medal struck by the French government on the ocassion of the one-hundredth anniversary of his death. This acknowledgement was delayed on account of the absence on vacation of the writer. Again thanking you for your courtesy in supplying our museum with this medal, I remain

Very truly yours,
